

International Cruise Victims

International Cruise Victims (ICV) is an international organization with members throughout the world, currently represented by over 20 countries. Under the ICV International News Section, many stories will be found in the original language. Google can be used to translate many of these articles into English or whatever you use.

Greetings,

The voice of ICV continued to spread around the world in 2013. The following is just one sample of the global messages being carried from Australia to Europe and the United States.

The Voice of ICV around the World

1. Feb 1, 2013 – Government Hearings - Brisbane, Australia – Mark Brimble and Ken Carver
2. May 3, 2013 Office of Victims of Crimes - Washington D.C. Jamie Barnett and Laurie Dishman
3. May 31, 2013 Victim Support – Edingbrough, Scotland - EU Presentation at their annual meeting by Ken Carver
4. July 24, 2013 – Washington DC – Attended hearing of Commerce Committee with resulting in the introduction of new legislation – Ken Carver
5. November 6, 2013 – Brussels – Meeting of Victim Support - EU regarding Manifesto for Victim Rights – Michael Lloyd
6. November 18th to the 20th. Washington D.C. - 10 ICV members made calls on Congressional Offices to gain support of H.R. 2800-S.1340.

Dealing with all of these developments takes passion from our members...we've certainly got that, but it also takes financial resources to help cover the costs our members are incurring in the process.

WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE

Many of you have supported our efforts in the past and we are deeply appreciative of those donations. However, to continue to take on our goal of bringing justice to victims of crimes on cruise ships, WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE.

PLEASE CONSIDER MAKING A

In honor and memory of those we have lost, those who have had to experience something terribly tragic instead of the trip of a lifetime, and for the unimaginable pain and loss of those who still wait for answers and justice, please give generously to ICV.
